(At the request of Mr. SCHUMER, the following statement was ordered to be printed in the RECORD.)

● Ms. HARRIS. Mr. President, on October 30, 2019, I was not present for the vote on S.J. Res. 52, providing for congressional disapproval under chapter 8 of title 5, United States Code, of the rule submitted by the Secretary of the Treasury and the Secretary of Health and Human Services relating to "State Relief and Empowerment Waivers." If I were present, I would have voted yes.●

VOTE EXPLANATION

Mr. BRAUN. Mr. President, today I voted against amendment No. 1141. I would like to take an opportunity to explain my position.

In September 2019, the Treasury Department reported, in accordance with Federal laws, that the highway trust fund's mass transit account had an unfunded authorization of $27 billion but only estimated $26 billion in revenue to be collected over the next 4 years. In other words, the account was expected to take on more than $1 billion in obligations than it would be able to collect in revenue.

Instead of correcting the problem, the Jones amendment ignored it, preventing Treasury from implementing the law to bring the mass transit account back into balance.

Since I joined this body in January, I have repeatedly noted my concern for our nearly $1 trillion annual budget deficit and our more than $22 trillion
